

Adam Holwerda

Web Application Developer

Portfolio: adamholwerda.now.sh
adamholwerda@gmail.com
(775) 443-8990

Ten years experience building interfaces for clients and end users, internal tools for teams and coworkers, and application MVPs. Built and maintained static and dynamic multi-page websites, single page applications and command line interfaces. Strong foundation in strategies, patterns and standards for interactive web projects. Database design, API construction, event orchestration, state management, remote/local sync, accessibility. Experience managing multiple production lanes to achieve goals in waterfall and agile environments. Well-defined projects completed on time.

Experience

Software Engineer II

EverQuote, Cambridge, MA

July 2019 - October 2020

- Managed corporate website updates and deployments (Ruby on Rails, React on Rails, GCP, AWS).
- Developed features on a vertical team to drive lift in AB testing efforts (Go, Typescript, Redux)
- Created user interface for creating test links and surfing existing AB testing experiences (React, Mobx, Typescript, Styled Components)

Web Developer

EF Educational Tours, Cambridge, MA

May 2015 - May 2018

- Built and launched group leader checklist, an integral part of tour group leader secure site that aggregates and makes interactable each group leader's remaining tasks before tour (React, Sitecore, C# .NET MVC)
- Developed front-end for supplier updates application for operations (Iris), for easily visualizing and managing calendar availability of vendors and their bookings (React, Flux, C# .NET MVC)
- Built and launched mobile enrollment flow (Sagan) based on specific tours to capture a traveler's enrollment data and derive future state of the application based on collected data (React, MobX, Mongo, C# .NET MVC)
- Worked with stakeholders in an Agile environment on cross-functional teams
- Iterated on legacy technology stacks and products in two week sprints

Senior UI/UX Developer

The Change Companies, Carson City, NV

November 2009 - April 2015

- Developed and maintained custom user-interface systems using the latest front-end and back-end technologies and scripting libraries (jQuery, Backbone, Node, MySQL, PHP)
- Designed and implemented database schemes for client and in-house projects (SQL)
- Developed and launched a new corporate website and managed cutover from existing site to new iteration/implemented continuous integration with deployment from Github
- Designed and coded marketing microsites and landing pages for various products

Education

Michigan State University

Bachelors of Arts

English; Creative Writing Emphasis